Fifth Grade Assignments: due tomorrow, Wednesday, February 27, 2019

- 1) Read, analyze, and annotate "The New Nation" magazine.
- 2) While reading, analyzing, and annotating the magazine, make a list in your social studies notebook.
- 3) The list will answer the following question: What were some of the challenges that were faced by the people in the new nation?
- 4) List evidence from the text in your notebook that describes the challenges of the new nation.

Example:
This is what my notebook will look like-

Challenges faced by the people of the new nation:

---

- Because of the potato problem, there wasn't enough food in Ireland.
- Many people were hungry and were searching for a better life in the United States.
- People had to start a whole new life in the United States without family and friends. This was difficult and scary.
- Immigrants came from Ireland, England, Scotland, and Germany from 1789-1850. People from different countries and different cultures who had to try to get along and work together.
- Add as many more facts and information that you can from your magazine.
- I am sure that many students will add ten or more bullets of facts and information.
- The facts and information will be about the challenges that were faced in the new nation.
