Colonist Advertisement

- Review pages 302-313 in your social studies textbook.
- Pretend you are a colonist and create an advertisement for a colonist newspaper stating your point-of-view and reactions to one of the topics mentioned on pages 302-313.
- Some topics include: the Stamp Act, the Sons and Daughters of Liberty, the Committees of Correspondence, the Townshend Acts, the Boston Massacre, the Boston Tea Party, the Coercive Acts, and the First Continental Congress.
- Be sure that your advertisement is as authentic (real) as possible. You may search the Internet for some ideas. DO NOT COPY FROM THE INTERNET. COPYING IS PLAGIARISM AND IS ILLEGAL!
- Even though color wasn't used much in advertisements in the 1700s, you may want to use color in your advertisement.
- On a sheet of loose-leaf, write one paragraph listing at least three reasons to support your point-of-view. Be sure that you state your claim to introduce your paragraph.

- On both your advertisement and on your loose-leaf paragraph:
 - -Add details.
 - -Use the "Persuasive Words and Phrases" sheet to get ideas for your writing.
 - -Check a dictionary to be sure that all of the words are spelled correctly.
 - -Have someone proofread your work.
 - -Be sure your work is extremely neat.
