First Continental Congress

Directions:

1) Write

- the name of your group
- the name of the meeting
- the location of your meeting
- the date of your meeting

2) As a group, decide what steps the colonists should take next.

3) As a group, decide which are the strongest grievances to be included in your petition to King George. Discuss why you think they are strong grievances.

4) Individually, decide which three grievances are most powerful and need to be included in your petition to King George.

5) In your prewriting booklet, write down the three reasons that are most important to you and that most strongly support your claim.

6) Next to the reasons, make a note of why you think that the reasons you chose are the strongest support of your claim.
