

PREPOSITION CIRCUS!

Student _____ Date _____

Your Task: You have been learning all about prepositions! With your group, you are now going to perform a circus routine for your classmates. Your circus routine must feature a minimum of ___ prepositions. The ringmaster is in charge of doing all the speaking.

Sample:

Ringmaster: And now the tiger will jump through the hoop! Look at the clown walking across the tightrope! And so on..

Requirements:

1. Your act must feature a minimum of ____ prepositions. Though you may use the prepositions more than once, you will only be given credit the first time you use the word.
2. Each group must have one ringmaster. The ringmaster is in charge of the speaking.
3. Each person in the group must participate in the routine.
4. No dangerous stunts! This is a silly circus!
5. You may use props. Use the provided art materials to make any costumes or props you need.
6. You must turn in the attached page prior to performing your routine for your teacher and classmates.
7. You will have _____ to complete this assignment.
Performances will begin _____.

PREPOSITION CIRCUS

Student _____ Date _____

GROUP MEMBERS	CIRCUS PERSONALITY
	ringmaster

In this space please record the prepositional phrases your act feature. (Number each one.) If you need more room, please attach a separate sheet of paper.

