

Name: _____

“Challenges of Being a Firefighter” Outline

Create an outline that will be used to help organize your essay using the tasks below as a guide.

Question: What are the challenges of being a firefighter?

- I can utilize several pieces of information, facts, and details from all five articles found in the “Firefighter” packet in my outline.
- I can create an outline with several relevant, well-chosen facts, definitions, details, and quotations from the text.
- I can create an outline that includes at least three bullets of topics that I will include in my introduction.
- I can create an outline that includes at least four body paragraphs.
- I can create an outline that includes at least three bullets of topics that I will include in my conclusion.

Question: What are the challenges of being a firefighter?
--

TASKS:

1. Sort the relevant and compelling quotes into categories.
2. You may choose to sort your quotes into the following categories: Challenges, more challenges, historical challenges, challenges of being a woman firefighter, extra quotes I might not use.
3. After you categorize your quotes, prioritize your quotes in order of importance.
4. When writing your essay, you will use one quote per paragraph. Each quote may be no longer than one sentence long.
5. You will use several other facts that you will put in your own words to describe and explain the challenges of being a firefighter. Be sure to add these facts to your outline.
6. In summary, you should have one quote and about three other facts per paragraph in your outline.