

THE COLONIES UNITE

Chapter 8: Section 1

What do we know about the colonies from previous chapters?

- Add your thoughts below wherever you want.

Cause vs. Effect

- What does “cause” mean?
- What does “effect” mean?

When do we see these two words? How do they relate to each other?

Think of a time in your life where you did something that effected something else and share with the class

“From Strangers to Neighbors”

- Turn to pg. 287 in your text and read “From Strangers to Neighbors” individually or with a partner(s).
 - Answer the questions on the bottom of the paragraph:
 - What caused John Rutledge to travel to New York City?
 - Why were the colonies like different countries?
 - How did learning about the Iroquois League affect colonists?

Fighting for Control

- Turn to p. 295 in textbook:
 - Analyze the map in the top right corner
 - Who can we tell is the most powerful? Why?
- Why do you think countries wanted to claim land? What is so significant about having land near a body of water?
- What is so SIGNIFICANT about the Ohio River Valley?

North America in 1754 Map Project

- Must have:
 - Title
 - KEY
 - Color representing different land
- Label
 - British land
 - French land
 - Spanish Land
 - Russian Land
 - Unclaimed Land
 - Mississippi River
 - Appalachian Mountains
 - Ohio River Valley

Albany Plan of Union

- What does the word “union” mean to you?
- Read pg. 296
 - Vocabulary:
 - Delegates
 - Alliance

 - Question to look for: What was the Albany Plan of Union and what did it say?

The French and Indian War (Also known as The Seven Years War)

Name: _____

Date: _____

French and Indian War Response Questions to Video

Directions: Answer the given questions below while watching the video. You must use complete sentences and restate the question that is being asked.

1. Who were the two opposing sides in the French and Indian War?

2. What year did the war begin? _____

3. What land caused a dispute between the French and the British? What body of water does it flow into?

4. Who is George Washington? What Fort was he in charge of protecting?

5. What is an alliance? (answer not in video)

French and Indian War History

More Trouble!

- The lands between the Appalachian Mountains and the Mississippi River were under British control because they won the war. Colonists wanted to settle in the land, which used to belong to the Native Americans.
- The Native Americans got so angry, and under the leadership of a Native named, Pontiac, together the Native Americans worked together to capture some of the British forts.
 - Why do you think they did this? Put yourself in the shoes of a Native American....what would you do?
 - Put yourself in the shoes of a British colonist who wants to settle in the area that is now theirs due to winning the war. What would you do? How would you react and why?

Proclamation of 1763

- King George III wanted to end the fighting between the colonist and the Native Americans
- Read p. 298 As a class
 - What did the Proclamation of 1763 say?
 - How did the Native Americans Respond?

Writing a letter to the King

- You will write a letter to King George III from the perspective of a Native American who has been fighting hard for his right to have a place to live freely.
 - Ms. Taggart will give further instructions

Paying for the War

- Read p. 299 from text book, “Paying for the War” as a class
 - Think/pair/share with classmates thoughts and reactions to British Action
 - What may an effect be to this action by the British Parliament?

Summary of Today's Lesson

- "Conflicting land claims in North America led to the French and Indian War. Britain defeated France in the war. After the war, Britain issued the Proclamation of 1763, but many colonists ignored it and kept moving west." (p.299)