DRAWING PROJECT: India

Draw an example of an Indian village:

- 1) Use pages 140-176 in the social studies textbook as a guide.
If you have access to the internet, use the internet as well.
- 2) Include as many details as possible from the text, as well as from our discussions of Indian culture.
- 3) Use color and fill up as much of the paper as possible.
- 4) Include a title.
- 5) Include your name.
- 6) Label all of the details of your drawing. Add a key if you would like.
- 7) Refer to Mrs. Looney's Class website for ideas of drawings.
- 8) Be prepared to share your drawing with the class during Circle Time.
 - Questions to consider for Circle Time:
 - Which part of your drawing depicts something fascinating that you learned about India?
 - Which part of your drawing depicts something very important about India? Why is it important?
