GROUPWORK- a short play by Miss G

STUDENT: Miss G I do not like working in groups!

MISS G: That's okay!

STUDENT: But- wait what?

MISS G: Not everyone likes to work in groups. Why don't you like groups?

STUDENT: We never know who's in charge and what everyone is supposed to do. It's a big mess!

MISS G: Great I have a solution!

Social Studies reading groups

There are four jobs:

- Reader
- Scribe
- Checker
- Thinker

If your group has more than three people, everyone else is a thinker.

But Miss G! What do these group members do?

Readers read the text.

Scribes write your answers.

Checkers check for spelling and factual accuracy.

Thinkers think and help find answers.
