Peer Editing Strategies

1. Each partner will read through the paper silently to themselves and complete the following steps:
2. Write at least three compliments on the paper.
3. Write suggestions. Use the following strategies.
  - a. Circle misspelled words.
  - b. Put a caret (^) in-between words to insert a word.
  - c. Underline letters that should be capitalized.
  - d. Underline or circle sentences that don't make sense and annotate your comments in the margins.
4. After reading through and editing the paper, discuss your compliments and suggestions with your partner.
5. After you have peer edited, write your final draft of your paper on loose-leaf.
