

Name: _____

Four Principles of Jainism

Basic Principles of Sikhism

Four Basic Principles of Jainism:

1. Injure no life, 2. Tell the truth, 3. Do not steal, 4. Own no property.

Sikhism: monotheistic, blended ideas from Hinduism and Islam, believed in reincarnation, pray several times a day, wear turbans.

Basic Principles of Sikhism: 1. People should live truthfully, 2. Treat all people equally.

1. Read pages 134-135 in the social studies textbook.
2. Write down the four basic principles of Jainism in your social studies notebook.
3. Write down the basic principles of Sikhism in your social studies notebook.
4. Draw a diagram that depicts and explains the four basic principles of Jainism and the basic principles of Sikhism. Organize your thoughts, facts, and ideas using boxes, circles, arrows, pictures, symbols, etc. Use lots of bright, vibrant colors since India values color.

Due: _____

5. Students will pick one of the basic principles that they feel is the hardest to follow. Students will write three paragraphs that explain why they think the principle is the hardest to follow. Write your explanation in your social studies notebook. Due: _____