Egypt Tri-orama Project

Directions:

- Create a pyramid (tri-orama) that reflects three key topics of Egypt.
- A tri-orama is a pyramid made of four sides of triangular paper that will look like a pyramid when it is attached all together.
- On three sides of the pyramid (tri-orama), construct a well-written response that explains Egypt. Include a picture to represent the Egyptian information.
- On the fourth side, write a title and your name.

Choose at least three topics from the list below. Feel free to group some of the similar topics:

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="radio"/> social class system | <input type="radio"/> music |
| <input type="radio"/> daily home life | <input type="radio"/> key geographic features |
| <input type="radio"/> recreation | <input type="radio"/> animals |
| <input type="radio"/> clothing | <input type="radio"/> natural resources |
| <input type="radio"/> art | <input type="radio"/> food |
| <input type="radio"/> writing system | <input type="radio"/> literature |
| <input type="radio"/> architecture | <input type="radio"/> religious beliefs in eternal life |
| <input type="radio"/> mummies | |
| <input type="radio"/> pyramids | |

- Write about two or more paragraphs for each of your three topics.
- Your tri-orama will reflect the most important information on your topic in a creative way. You will also include drawings and symbols.
- Be sure to write a title and your name on the fourth side of your tri-orama.

- You will be graded on neatness, completeness, grammar, spelling, and accuracy of information.
- Use your online textbook as a resource.
- Be sure to cite where you find any quotes that you choose to use.
